

International Theatre Institute ITI

World Organization for the Performing Arts

t.biancone@iti-worldwide.org www.iti-worldwide.org
Director General: Tobias Biancone

ITI is recruiting for its headquarters in Shanghai/China

Bridging Cultures in the Performing Arts

International Development Manager

The International Theatre Institute ITI (World Organization for the Performing Arts) is looking for an International Development Manager. The work includes:

- Assist the ca. 85 ITI Centres located all over the world in their development
- Expand the existing membership to new countries
- Facilitate the organization of regional reunions of Centres in Europe, Africa, Asia/Pacific, the Americas and Africa
- Provide assistance with projects and programmes created together with UNESCO
- Assist ITI Committees and Project Groups in their development
- Participate in the organization of the ITI World Congress, held every 2 years in a different city/continent.

The position is with the ITI Headquarters in Shanghai/China. It requires extensive international travel to ITI Centres in all parts of the world and occasionally to UNESCO in Paris.

Minimum 2 years' experience in international work and a higher education degree in a related field. Language skills: excellent spoken and written English and French. Good Spanish will be a plus.

ITI will provide a relocation package to China and residence and work permits. More information about ITI: www.iti-worldwide.org

If you are interested please send your CV and cover letter specifying the position for which you are applying to: t.biancone@iti-worldwide.org

Deadline for applications: 31 March 2015. Expected starting date: as soon as possible.